

Meet our Spirituality Liaison Staff

10 Staff members have completed Spirituality in Health Care training with Facilitator Pauline Arnold. This will enable them to address and assist other staff to better recognise and respond to the spiritual needs of those we care for. The World Health Organisation tells us spiritual care is a vital part of the total health care offered by any health care facility. Some peoples spirituality will be expressed in religion, but not for others. They may express their spirituality in relationship with self, others, nature, universe etc. It is essentially individual and embedded in the unique experience and story of each person.

Please contact any of the spiritual Liaison Staff for more information.

Important— 2 days left Renewal of Nursing & Midwifery Registration

It is important that we all renew our registrations with AHPRA if we wish to continue to practice as a nurse and/ or midwife.

Registrations expire on 31st May 2015.

KDHS Value—Empathy

The ability to understand and share the feelings of another.

Displaying values of Empathy

This story demonstrates staff displaying the values of Empathy, Community and wellbeing with staff not just looking after the patients actual injury, but his overall wellbeing.

Elderly gentleman in hospital for an extensive period of time following a fall. His biggest concern on admission was who would care for his dog, as he has no family or support as he chose to live a quiet life with just him and his dog since his wife died many years ago. On admission MSW staff made some inquiries and a local vet offered to care for the dog whilst he was here. After caring for him one day, an MSW staff member decided that the following day on her day off she would arrange to surprise him with a visit from his dog. This created great happiness (and some tears) for the patient and staff. In the staff member words “Just shows how a little kindness can mean so much to everyone”.
